

Sunday, 2007-07-15

Compass IC Junior Challenge 2007

Tomorrow the first matches. Italy against Russia

All is ready at the Circolo Tennis Albinea (Reggio Emilia – Italy) for the start of the Compass European Junior Challenge 2007, the European phase of the great youth tennis world event. The matches are scheduled from tomorrow, Monday, to Friday 20 July.

Eight national teams will play to get the only pass available for European zone for the 2008 World Final in Auckland, New Zealand. Tomorrow morning the official start with the matches that, until Wednesday, will decide the 2 groups standings. Thursday the semifinals and Friday all the final.

Great Britain and Norway are number 1 and 2 of the seeding. The Italy, number 3, is placed in the group B and in the first day will take the Russia.

The tomorrow schedule include also Great Britain – Luxemburg and Sweden – Ireland on group A, and Norway – Germany for the group B.

GROUP A: Great Britain (1), Sweden (4), Ireland (6), Luxemburg (8)

GROUP B: Norway (2), Italy (3), Russia (5), Germany (7)

Event on the Circolo Tennis Albinea from Monday to Friday with free access for the spectators..

Giudici Arbitro: Alda Govi e Stefano Sacchi

IC Supervisor: Shali Hutchins